

An aerial photograph of a coastal town in Sicily, likely Taormina. The town is built on a hillside, with a large, rugged cliff face rising behind it. The sea is visible on the left, and the town's buildings are nestled among trees. The sky is a mix of blue and orange, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The text 'ART TOUR TO PALERMO' is overlaid in large, white, serif capital letters.

We will be staying in a very comfortable villa in Mondello, Palermo, just a short walk from the beach. Each tour comprises 7 nights and 6 days, of which 3 will be painting at the villa, and 3 will be out on tour, when we will be driven in a small bus with an experienced driver. Non painting partners are welcome. These days may be interchanged to ensure opening hours. For guest's own account will be the meals out - three lunches at a local trattoria when on tour, and 3 dinners out.

Susie Gallagher is an established Fashion Label.

"In 1982 I took a year off and attended the University Lorenzo Di Medici in Florence where I studied Italian language & the cuisine of Tuscany.

Then in conjunction with my fashion travels I started Cuisine Adagio. My blog shows how Travel and Food are a great combination. You will see the group experience never fails to give us a lot of pleasure." My blog can be viewed at <https://www.susiegallagher.com/blog>

Next year with Anna & Cally we travel to Palermo on an Art and Food Tour I cannot wait to share it with you!
